

Aerocool Engineers

To work out air conditioning load we need following data from your side

Area

Length                      feet
Width                        feet
Height                        feet

Falce ceiling if any        feet
Height

Floor location                ground / first window (glass area)        sq. ft orientation and size

Occupancy                    no of persons

Inside equipment load      kw

Nature of equipment operation    continuous / intermitant operation??
(Diversity)

Lighting load                watts

Any special filtration requirement

20 micron is std filtration